FROM THE EAST

Well, my year on the hot seat has arrived. Thank you all for the faith you had in putting me in the East. I'm looking forward to my new responsibilities with my new crew of officers. I will do my best to live up to your expectations.

Congratulation to JUNIOR PAST MASTER Chris for a job well done. He had a very productive year.

Vegas 32 has a reputation of doing good work, and I hope with the help of all of you out there we can further improve upon it this year.

By the way: Discussion is an exchange of knowledge; Argument is an exchange of ignorance.

Fraternally,

Stan

Worshipful Master

FROM THE WEST

First, Brethren let me express my gratitude for your confidence in electing me as your Senior Warden. It is with much personal pride that I serve as one of it's officers. There could not be a greater honor than being a member of this Lodge, let alone one of it's principle officers.

To all the new officers of Vegas Lodge 32, I extend my congratulations, especially to those Brothers who are entering the line for the first time.

With the month of January comes not only a new calendar year, but the beginning of a new Masonic year with all the excitement that each new year brings. To our new Worshipful Master, please don't hesitate if you need my help on any occasion. We are all looking forward to a great year with many accomplishments. To the other officers, if you ever need my help, please do not be afraid to ask — I will always be here to assist. That is part of who we are as Masons.

Again Brethren... Thanks!

Fraternally,

Mike

Senior Warden

FROM THE SOUTH

Iwould like to thank all the brethren of Vegas 32 for electing me to the office of Junior Warden. I am truly honored and I will do my best to serve you. Also I would like to congratulate all the elected and the appointed officers.

Every sunset brings sunrise, and every day is different than the last. But remembering yesterday, and being appreciative, makes a new day more enjoyable and productive. There is no doubt Vegas 32 will have an even better year than we had last year.

Last but not least, I would like to take a moment and wish Happy Holidays and Happy New Year. May the coming year bring success to our lodge.

Fraternally,

Birant

Junior Warden

FROM THE SECRETARY

Well, here we are, off to a new year with a new corps of officer's. I'm sure it will be as successful as last year was.

Please come out to Lodge and support your Lodge and its officers. You only get out of Masonry what you put into it.

I want to thank the brethren for their vote of confidence in me by allowing me to serve another year as your Secretary.

Fraternally,

Mark

Secretary

Being a Mason

A salesman breaks down in a remote country lane. A farmer in the adjacent field comes over and they discover that they are "Brothers."

The salesman expresses his concern, as he has an important appointment in the local town.

"Don't worry," says the farmer, "you can use my car. I will call a friend and get the car repaired while you go to the appointment"

Off goes the salesman and a couple of hours later he returns, but unfortunately the car is awaiting a part which won't arrive until the next morning.

"It's not a problem," says the Farmer, "use my telephone and re-schedule your first appointment tomorrow, stay with us tonight and I'll see that the car is done first thing!"

The farmer's wife prepares a wonderful meal and they share a glass of fine single malt during an excellent evening. The salesman sleeps soundly and when he awakes — there is his car! Repaired and ready to go. After a full English breakfast the salesman thanks them both for their hospitality.

As he and the farmer walk to his car he turns and asks, "My brother, thank you so much, but I have to ask, did you help me because I am a Mason?"

"No," came the reply, "I helped you because I am a Mason."
